Youth Minister's Report December 2009

Sunday School

- † High school and junior high Sunday School are combined

Youth Group

- † We still do things together as one large group, but now split into two groups by learning style for our teaching time. I write the lessons for both groups, and teach both groups on a rotating schedule. Volunteer leaders teach the group I'm not teaching that week.
 - One group has a discussion based lesson
 - The other group uses an interactive and creative lesson
- † Our creative learning style group has been learning about Jesus
- † Our discussion based learning style group has been walking through Daniel 1-6
- † We've been working on building our Christian vocabulary (revelation, Messiah, ect...)
- † We participated in the Christmas Program

Highlights from My Month

- † Connecting with students inside and outside of church setting
- † Had various students and adult leaders over to my house for some times of fellowship while students were on Christmas Break
- † Helped a family with unmet needs
- † Christmas Party on December 30, 2009
- † Participated in the Christmas activities of the church (Cookie Party, Christmas Program, Cantata, Organ Concert, Christmas Eve services, Christmas Parties)
- † Planning for the upcoming year

Looking Ahead

- † On Wednesday nights, we are going to start having a night focused on worship and prayer once a month
- † I'm giving students a devotional booklet each month that goes along with our lessons
- † Quincy area Youth Gathering January 10, 2010
- † Skwim January 15-18, 2010. We will be traveling with other ministries on a bus.
- † We will be attending a Purity Conference at Cherry Hills on February 5-6, 2010. Parents are encouraged to come as well. Cost for students to attend is $10 for the conference and $5 for lodging, which will be at Lake Springfield Baptist Camp
- † Super Bowl Party on February 7, 2010
- † Young Christians Weekend March 26-28, 2010
- † Working on planning other activities, events, and service opportunities
